

770T Chefs Blow Torch

WARNINGS/SAFETY HINTS

- Read carefully the instructions before using the appliance. Keep this instruction and read them when necessary.
- Use only Butane lighter fuel
- Keep away from children
- Do not use an appliance which shows any damage
- Close the taps, valves, adjusted knobs of the appliance before connection or refill.
- Refill the tank in a well-ventilated place, in a flame or ignition source free atmosphere, far from other persons. Do not smoke while refilling.
- Do not put an ignited appliance down.
- Assembly and adjustment made in the factory shall not be modified. It can be dangerous to try to modify the adjustment or the construction of the appliance, to dismantle some parts or to use components other than these recommended.
- Refilling by an inadequate method may lead to serious accidents.
- Verify that seals if any at the connection are well placed and not damaged.
- Check the hoses for damage
- Be careful not to heat the containers or the refillable gas tank or burn them.
- Do not work in enclosed space, maintain good ventilation
- Work only in a clean place, far from combustible or greased materials.
- Wear eye-protecting equipment
- Avoid breathing welding/soldering fumes
- Allow the appliance to cool down before storing.
- Store and transport the containers upright
- Use only specified spare parts
- Never try to repair a damaged tool
- Do not direct the flame at any person
- Warning. The flame is not good visible in the sun
- After using, the safety lock should be engaged
- Do not throw the appliance or the container into fire
- Always wear protective gloves and use proper tools, to handle hot work
- Avoid contact of Butane with skin and eyes
- Always have a fire extinguisher and a bucket of water near the torch and work area
- Never attempt to modify the torch construction and never use unapproved fuels.